

Invitation in a Panel

"What does the Cloud mean for Data Management:
Challenges and Opportunities"

Motivating Questions

"What does the Cloud mean for Data Management:
Challenges and Opportunities"

- What is the Cloud? Is it new?
- What does the new cloud infrastructure bring to data management research?
- How does "old" traditional data management need to change? What can stay the same?
- Is parallel & distributed data management relevant?

Panel Logistics

- Date: Tue, Sep 7 @ 1pm (in class)
- Who:
 - Coordinator: Instructor
 - Panelists: 4 randomly chosen
 - Audience: N-4 😊
- Panel format:
 - 8 minutes position statements from panelists
 - Q&A and position statements from audience
- How to prepare:
 - Slides answering the motivating questions

Typical Panel Format

- Part I:
 - Moderator's introduction (3-5 minutes)
 - Panelists opening statements (8 minutes each)
- Part II:
 - Rebuttal speeches (3 minutes)
- Part III:
 - Audience Q&A ; [Position Statement]

Panelists

- Randomly Selected...
- Sean Snyder
- Marian Iskander
- Panickos Neophytou
- Thao Pham

Panel on

"What does the Cloud mean for Data Management: Challenges and Opportunities"

- The Cloud.. the latest beast on the block ☺
 - new buzzword describing an evolutionary step or
 - a disruptive technology

Motivating Questions

"What does the Cloud mean for Data Management: Challenges and Opportunities"

- What is the Cloud? Is it new?
- What does the new cloud infrastructure bring to data management research?
- How does "old" traditional data management need to change? What can stay the same?
- Is parallel & distributed data management relevant?